FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO Member Bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO Technical Committees. Every Member Body interested in a subject for which a Technical Committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that Committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the Technical Committees are circulated to the Member Bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 2488 was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 47, Chemistry, and circulated to the Member Bodies in August 1971.

It has been approved by the Member Bodies of the following countries :

Austria	India	Romania
Belgium	Ireland	South Africa, Rep. of
Chile	Israel	Spain
Czechoslovakia	Italy	Switzerland
Egypt, Arab Rep. of	Netherlands	Thailand
France	New Zealand	United Kingdom
Germany	Poland	U.S.S.R.
Hungary	Portugal

No Member Body expressed disapproval of the document.
