FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO Member Bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO Technical Committees. Every Member Body interested in a subject for which a Technical Committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that Committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the Technical Committees are circulated to the Member Bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 3784 was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 22, Road vehicles, and circulated to the Member Bodies in May 1975.

It has been approved by the Member Bodies of the following countries :

Australia	Germany	Spain
Austria	Hungary	Sweden
Belgium	Iran	Switzerland
Brazil	Italy	Turkey
Bulgaria	Japan	United Kingdom
Chile	Netherlands	U.S.A.
Czechoslovakia	Poland	Yugoslavia
Finland	Romania
France	South Africa, Rep. of

No Member Body expressed disapproval of the document.
