PREFACE

The standards set forth herein apply to the first edition of the Standard for Direct Gas-Fired Circulating Heaters for Agricultural Animal Confinement Buildings, ANSI/IAS LC 2-1996, and supersede corresponding standards therein. Following their preparation by the supervising subcommittee, they were accepted by Accredited Standards Committee Z21/83 and subsequently approved as an American National Standard by the American National Standards Institute, Inc.

NOTE: Changes, other than editorial, are denoted by a vertical line in the margin.
