You may choose to use the Content in whole, in part, or not at all.

There may be practices, standards and/or governmental requirements applicable to your operations that exceed, or vary from, the Licensed Product. You are solely responsible for determining if such practices, standards or regulatory requirements exist and whether they apply to your activities, and for complying with those that are applicable. Such practices, standards and regulatory requirements can change significantly over time. Unless A4A expressly states otherwise in writing, nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as requiring A4A to provide you with updates, revisions, or information about any development or action affecting the Licensed Product.

The Licensed Product has been compiled by A4A and/or its licensors. A4A and/or its licensors reserve title to and ownership of the Licensed Product and all copyrights and any other intellectual property rights in it.

DESCRIPTION OF LICENSE

Upon your acceptance of this Agreement, you will be permitted to access the information for which you have obtained the license described and limited below.

The extent of permissible access to the Licensed Product to you and within your company depends on the type of Licensed Product that A4A has provided to you. Access is as follows:

1. If you purchased the Licensed Product for individual use (“single-user”), access to the Licensed Product shall be limited to one employee in your company but not to any third parties.

Single user and multi-user employees may use the Licensed Product for the internal business purposes of your company, and each may print a single copy of any Licensed Product for purposes of designing, structuring or modifying any of your company’s products or services as authorized below. Single users and multi-user employees may refer to the Licensed Product when conducting an actual Airworthiness Concern Coordination Process with applicable external parties.

The license that this Agreement provides you is subject to any applicable payment and is non-exclusive and worldwide. A4A can terminate this license if you materially fail to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

6. Sublicense or assign this Agreement.
7. Indicate that A4A endorses, approves, or certifies your application of the Licensed Product, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing prohibition, your use of specifications contained in the Licensed Product.
