Copyright

Users of British Standards are reminded that copyright subsists in all BSI publications. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any form without the prior permission in writing of BSI. This does not preclude the free use, in the course of implementing the standard, of necessary details such as symbols and size, type or grade designations. Enquiries should be addressed to the BSI Secretariat.

In order to keep abreast of progress in the industries concerned, British Standards are subject to periodical review. Suggestions for improvements will be recorded and in due course brought to the notice of the committees charged with the revision of the standards to which they refer.

Revision of British Standards

British Standards are revised, when necessary, by the issue either of amendment slips or of revised editions.

It is important that users of British Standards should ascertain that they are in possession of the latest amendments or editions. Full information on all BSI publications, numbering over 6000, will be found in the British Standards Yearbook. This information is supplemented by details published each month in BSI News of new publications, revisions and amendments.

BSI News is available to Subscribing Members of the Institution. All other publications may be purchased direct from Sales Department. Enquiries concerning subscribing membership, which has considerable advantages, will be welcomed, and should be made to Subscriptions Department. Both departments are located at:

101 Pentonville Road, London N1 9ND (Tel. 01-837 8801; Telex 23218).
