National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Food and Agriculture Standards Committee. It is identical with ISO 950:1979 “Cereals — Sampling (as grain)”, as amended by ISO 950:1979(E)/Erratum, prepared by sub-committee 4, Cereals and pulses, of Technical Committee 34, Agricultural food products, of the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It supersedes BS 4510:1969 which is now withdrawn.

Terminology and conventions. The text of the International Standard has been approved as suitable for publication, without deviation, as a British Standard. Some terminology and certain conventions are not identical with those used in British Standards; attention is especially drawn to the following.

Wherever the words “International Standard” appear, referring to this standard, they should be read as “British Standard”.

Additional information. With reference to the Annex, the text should be read as follows, which makes no change in the technical content, but clarifies the meaning:

In paragraph 1, line 8, “For” should be read as “From”.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
