National foreword

This Section of BS 4533 has been prepared under the direction of the Electrical Illumination Standards Policy Committee and is the English language version of EN 60 598-2-5 “Luminaires — Part 2:Particular requirements Section 5 — Floodlights” including amendment A2 published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). It was adopted by that organization from IEC Publication 598-2-5 (1979) edition 1 and Amendment No. 1 (1987), and amendment No. 2 (1993) which is identical with the European Standard. This British Standard supersedes BS 4533-102.5:1981, which is withdrawn.

The foreword and preface of IEC Publication 598-2-5 (1979) edition 1 and the preface of Amendment No. 1 (1987), which do not form part of the text of EN 60598-2-5, have been quoted in National appendix NA. Annexes designated “normative” are part of the body of the standard. Annexes designated “informative” are given for information only. National appendices are designated “informative”.

In 5.1, 5.2, 5.12 and 5.13 where the words “section of Part 2 of IEC Publication 598”, “section of Part 2” and “section of Publication 598-2” appear they should be read as “section of BS 4533”. In 5.1 and 5.2 where “Part 1” appears this should be read as “Part 101”. Where the words “Publication 598-1” appear they should be read as “BS 4533-101”.

Cross-references. Details of other international publications quoted in this British Standard are given in Annex ZA. Where there are British Standards corresponding to these international standards the relationships are given in National appendix NB.

Product certification. Users of this British Standard are advised to consider the desirability of third party certification of product conformity with this British Standard based on testing and continuing surveillance, which may be coupled with assessment of a supplier’s quality systems against the appropriate Part of BS 5750.

Enquiries as to the availability of third party certification schemes will be forwarded by BSI to the Association of Certification Bodies. If a third party certification scheme does not already exist, users should consider approaching an appropriate body from the list of Association members.

The foreword of the EN amendment A2 makes reference to “date of withdrawal (dow) of conflicting national standards” as “1995-03-01”. In this case the relevant national standard is BS 4533-102.5 but the “dow” relates only to those parts of the British Standard subject to Amendment No. 1. Certificates and marks will not be awarded after this date with respect to the British Standard not incorporating Amendment No. 1. They will be awarded with respect only to the amended British Standard. However, such certificates and marks already awarded with respect to the British Standard not incorporating Amendment No. 1 may continue to apply for production until 2000-03-01.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
