National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the General Mechanical Engineering Standards Policy Committee and is the English language version of EN 24566 “Shipbuilding; Inboard-engined pleasure craft; Propeller shaft ends and bosses”, which endorses ISO 4566:1985 “Shipbuilding — Inboard-engined pleasure craft — Propeller shaft ends and bosses”, published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). It supersedes British Standard MA 74-1:1976, which is withdrawn.

Cross-references. Where there are British Standards either identical or technically equivalent to International Standards quoted in this standard the relationship is given in National appendix B.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
