Foreword

Publishing information

This British Standard is published by BSI and came into effect on 31 March 2010. It was prepared by Subcommittee TDW/4/7, BS 8887 Design for MADE under the authority of Technical Committee TDW/4, Technical product realization. A list of organizations represented on this committee can be obtained on request to its secretary.

Relationship with other publications

BS 8887 is published in a number of parts, including:

- Part 1: General concepts, processes and requirements;
- Part 2: Terms and definitions.

Information about this document

Documents numbered Part 1 to Part 99 are general MADE standards. Documents numbered Part 100 to Part 199 are related to manufacture and assembly. Documents numbered Part 200 to Part 299 are related to disassembly and end-of-life.

Presentational conventions

The provisions of this standard are presented in roman (i.e. upright) type. Its requirements are expressed in sentences in which the principal auxiliary verb is “shall”.

Commentary, explanation and general informative material is presented in smaller italic type, and does not constitute a normative element.

Contractual and legal considerations

This publication does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users are responsible for its correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard cannot confer immunity from legal obligations.
