National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Automobile Standards Committee and is identical with ISO 4100 “Road vehicles — World parts manufacturer identifier (WPMI) code” prepared by Technical Committee ISO/TC 22, Road vehicles, and published in 1980 by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).

Terminology and conventions. The text of the International Standard has been approved as suitable for publication as a British Standard without deviation. Some terminology and certain conventions are not identical with those used in British Standards; attention is especially drawn to the following. Wherever the words “International Standard” appear, referring to this standard, they should be read as “British Standard”.

There is no British Standard corresponding to ISO 3833:1977 to which reference is made in clause 3. The Technical Committee has reviewed the provisions of that International Standard and has decided that they are acceptable for use in conjunction with this standard.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
