National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Electronic Components Standards Policy Committee. It is identical with CECC 00114-IV “Rule of Procedure 14, Quality assessment procedures, Part IV: Procedure for enhanced assessment of quality”, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC) Electronic Components Committee (CECC).

This standard prescribes the principles of the quality assessment for components manufactured under the CECC system.

Cross-references

International Standard	Corresponding British Standard
	BS CECC 00114: Rule of Procedure 14. Quality assessment procedures
CECC 00114-I	Part 1:1991 Approval of manufacturers and other organizations (Identical)
CECC 00114-II	Part 2:1991 Qualification approval of electronic components (Identical)
CECC 00114-III	Part 3:1991 Capability approval of an electronic component manufacturing activity (Identical)

The British Standard which implements the CECC Rules of procedure is BS 9000 “General requirements for a system for electronic components of assessed quality” Part 2:1991 “Specification for the national implementation of the CECC system”.

The Technical Committee has reviewed the provisions of CECC 00107-I and CECC 00107-II, to which reference is made in the text, and has decided that they are acceptable for use in conjunction with this standard. There are no corresponding British Standards to CECC 00107-I and CECC 00107-II.¹⁾

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
