National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Consumer and Contract Goods Standards Policy Committee and is the English language version of EN 1021-2:1993 Furniture — Assessment of the ignitability of upholstered furniture — Part 2: Ignition source: Match flame equivalent, published by the European Committee for Standardization (CEN). This Part of BS EN 1021, together with BS EN 1021-1, will supersede part of BS 5852:1990. The appropriate parts of BS 5852:1990 will be deleted by amendment. BS 5852-1:1979 and BS 5852-2:1982 will be retained as they are referred to in legislation. EN 1021-2 was produced as a result of international discussions in which the UK took an active part.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
