

Fireworks —

Part 1: Terminology

The European Standard EN 14035-1:2003 has the status of a British Standard

ICS 01.040.71; 71.100.30

National foreword

This British Standard is the official English language version of EN 14035-1:2003 including Corrigendum 1 January 2005. Together with BS EN 14035-2:2003, it supersedes BS 7114-1:1988 which has been declared obsolescent.

NOTE BS 7114-1:1998 has not been withdrawn immediately because it is cited in The Fireworks (Safety) Regulations 1997.

The UK participation in its preparation was entrusted to Technical Committee CII/47, Fireworks, which has the responsibility to:

- aid enquirers to understand the text;
- present to the responsible European committee any enquiries on the interpretation, or proposals for change, and keep the UK interests informed;
- monitor related international and European developments and promulgate them in the UK.

A list of organizations represented on this committee can be obtained on request to its secretary.

Cross-references

The British Standards which implement international or European publications referred to in this document may be found in the BSI Catalogue under the section entitled “International Standards Correspondence Index”, or by using the “Search” facility of the BSI Electronic Catalogue or of British Standards Online.

This publication does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users are responsible for its correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
