Committees responsible for this British Standard

The preparation of this British Standard was entrusted by Technical Committee EPL/86, Fibre optics, to Subcommittee EPL/86/1, Optical fibres and cables, upon which the following bodies were represented:

- British Approvals Service for Cables
- British Cable Makers Confederation
- British Telecommunications plc
- Department of Trade and Industry (National Physical Laboratory)
- Federation of the Electronics Industry
- Ministry of Defence
- National Supervising Inspectorate (BSI PC)

This British Standard, having been prepared under the direction of the Electrotechnical Sector Board, was published under the authority of the Standards Board and comes into effect on 15 October 1995

This European Standard was approved on 1994-12-28. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.
