National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Health Care Standards Policy Committee and is the English language version of EN 50072:1992, Medical electrical equipment — Particular requirements for the safety of peritoneal dialysis equipment, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). This Particular Standard amends and supplements BS 5724-1 hereinafter called the General Standard.

The changes from the text of the General Standard are specified by the use of the following words.

“Replacement” means that the clause, subclause or specified paragraph of the General Standard is replaced by the text of this standard.

“Amendment” means that the clause, subclause or specified paragraph of the General Standard is amended as indicated by the text of this standard.

“Addition” means that the text of this standard is additional to the requirements of the General Standard.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.

This European Standard was approved by CENELEC on 24 March 1992. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.
