National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared under the direction of the Light Electrical Engineering Standards Policy Committee and is the English language version of EN 60335-2-10 Safety of household and similar electrical appliances — Part 2: Particular requirements for floor treatment machines and wet scrubbing machines including amendments A1 and A51, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). It was derived by CENELEC from IEC 335-2-10 (1987) third edition as amended by Amendment 1:1991 published by the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC).

The CENELEC common modifications have been implemented at the appropriate places in the text and are indicated by a side line in the margin. Parts of the original IEC text that have been modified by CENELEC have been quoted in National annex NA.

This British Standard is to be read in conjunction with BS 3456-201:1990 General requirements, which it supplements or modifies. The many references to Part 1 should be read as references to BS 3456-201, which is the English language version of EN 60335-1 which was derived from the 1983 reprint of IEC Publication 335-1 (1976) second edition including Amendments 1, 2 and 3 to IEC 335-1.

This British Standard is to be read in conjunction with BS 3456-201:1990 General requirements, including the amendments shown in the following table, which supplement and modify BS 3456-201, which is the English language version of EN 60335-1 which was derived from the 1983 reprint of IEC Publication 335-1 (1976) second edition including Amendments 1, 2 and 3 to IEC 335-1.

Product approval. Attention is drawn to the fact that products conforming to this British Standard may be approved by the British Electrotechnical Approvals Board for the purposes of participation in the CENELEC Certification Agreement and in the CB Scheme of the IECEE. (Details of the BEAB Approval Scheme are given on the inside back cover.)

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.

This European Standard was approved by CENELEC on 1 August 1990. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.
