

Safety of household and similar electrical appliances —

Part 2-65: Particular requirements for air-cleaning appliances

The European Standard EN 60335-2-65:1995, including amendment A1:2001 has the status of a British Standard

ICS 23.120

Committees responsible for this British Standard

The preparation of this British Standard was entrusted by Technical Committee CPL/61, Safety of electrical appliances, to Subcommittee CPL/61/4, Room air-conditioners, upon which the following bodies were represented:

- Association of Control Manufactures [TACMA (BEAMA Ltd.)]
- Association of Manufactures of Domestic Electrical Appliances
- British Electrotechnical Approvals Board
- Consumer Policy Committee of BSI
- Department of Trade and Industry (Consumer Safety Unit, CA Division)
- Electricity Association
- ERA Technology Ltd.
- HEVAC Association
- LP Gas Association

This British Standard, having been prepared under the direction of the Electrotechnical Sector Board, was published under the authority of the Standards Board and comes into effect on 15 March 1996

National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared by Subcommittee CPL/61/4 and is the English language version of EN 60335-2-65:1995 Safety of household and similar electrical appliances — Part 2-65: Particular requirements for air-cleaning appliances including amendment A1:2001, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). It was derived by CENELEC from IEC 60335-2-65:1993 including amendment 1:2000 which has the same title as the European Standard and is published by the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC).

The CENELEC common modifications have been implemented at the appropriate places in the text. The start and finish of each common modification is indicated in the text by tags [C] <C]. The start and finish of text introduced or altered by amendment is indicated in the text by tags [A] <A]. Tags indicating changes to IEC text carry the number of the IEC amendment. For example, text altered by IEC amendment 1 is indicated by [A] <A]. Parts of the original IEC text that have been modified by CENELEC have been quoted in National annex NA.

The foreword of EN 60335-2-65 makes reference to the date of withdrawal (dow) of the relevant national standard. In this case there is no relevant national standard as BS EN 60335-2-65 is the first British Standard covering the safety requirements for air-cleaning appliances.

This British Standard is to be read in conjunction with BS EN 60335-1:1995 Safety of household and similar electrical appliances — Part 1: General requirements. The many references to Part 1 should be read as references to BS EN 60335-1, which is the English language version of EN 60335-1:1994 which was derived from the second impression, 1993, of IEC publication 335-1 (third edition 1991). Amendments and revisions of Part 1 have also to be taken into account and the dates when such changes become applicable will be stated in the relevant amendment or revision of Part 1.

From 1 January 1997, all IEC publications have the number 60000 added to the old number. For instance, IEC 27-1 has been renumbered as IEC 60027-1. For a period of time during the change over from one numbering system to the other, publications may contain identifiers from both systems.

This European Standard was approved by CENELEC on 1995-07-04. Amendment A1 was approved by CENELEC on 2000-11-01. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.

Foreword

The proposal to endorse IEC 335-2-65:1993, document CLC/TC 61 (SEC) 918, was circulated under the enquiry procedure in September 1993. This proposal was discussed during the Oslo meeting in April 1994, when it was decided to submit a draft for EN 60335-2-65 to the formal vote.

This draft was circulated in February 1995 and was ratified by CENELEC as EN 60335-2-65 on 1995 07-04.

This European Standard has been prepared by the secretariat of CENELEC Technical Committee TC 61.

The following dates are applicable:

- latest date by which the EN has to be implemented at national level by publication of an identical national standard or by endorsement (dop) 1996-04-01
- date on which national standards conflicting with the EN have to be withdrawn (dow) 1998-04-01

For products which have complied with the relevant national standard before 1998-04-01, as shown by the manufacturer or by a certification body, this previous standard may continue to apply for production until 2003-04-01.

This standard has been used in conjunction with EN 60335-1, Safety of household and similar electrical appliances, Part 1: General requirements. It was established on the basis of the 1994 edition of that standard. Amendments and revisions of Part 1 have also to be taken into account and the dates when such changes become applicable will be stated in the relevant amendment or revision of Part 1.

This Part 2 supplements or modifies the corresponding clauses of EN 60335-1, so as to convert it into the European Standard: Safety requirements for air-cleaning appliances.

Where a particular subclause of Part 1 is not mentioned in this Part 2, that subclause applies as far as is reasonable. Where this standard states “addition”, “modification” or “replacement”, the relevant text of Part 1 is to be adapted accordingly.

Subclauses and tables which are additional to those in Part 1 are numbered starting with 101.

There are no special national conditions causing a deviation from this European Standard, other than those listed in Annex ZA to EN 60335-1.

There are no national deviations from this European Standard, other than those listed in Annex ZB to EN 60335-1.

NOTE The following print types are used:

- requirements: in roman type;
- test specifications: in italic type
- notes: in small roman type.

Words in bold in the text are defined in clause 2. When a definition of Part 1 concerns an adjective, the adjective and the associated noun are also in bold.

Foreword to amendment A1

The text of document 61/1876/FDIS, future amendment to IEC 60335-2-65:1993, prepared by the IEC Technical Committee 61, was submitted to the IEC-CENELEC parallel vote and was approved by CENELEC as amendment A1 to EN 60335-2-65:1995 on 2000-11-01.

The following dates are applicable:

- latest date by which the amendment has to be implemented at national level by publication of an identical national standard or by endorsement (dop) 2001-08-01
- latest date by which national standards conflicting with the amendment have to be withdrawn (dow) 2003-11-01

This amendment supplements or modifies the corresponding clauses of EN 60335-2-65:1995.

There are no special national conditions causing a deviation from this amendment.

There are no national deviations from this amendment.

Introduction

An investigation by CENELEC TC 61 has shown that all risks from products within the scope of this standard are fully covered by the Low Voltage Directive, 73/23/EEC. If the product has mechanical moving parts, a risk assessment in accordance with the Machinery Directive, 89/392/EEC, has shown that the risks are mainly of electrical origin and consequently this directive is not applicable. However, the relevant essential safety requirements of the Machinery Directive are covered by this standard together with the principal objectives of the Low Voltage Directive.
