Part 2-23: Particular requirements — Extra low voltage lighting systems for filament lamps

The European Standard EN 60598-2-23:1996, with the incorporation of amendment A1:2000, has the status of a British Standard

ICS 29.140.40

Committees responsible for this British Standard

The preparation of this British Standard was entrusted to Technical Committee CPL/34/4, Luminaires, upon which the following bodies were represented:

- Association of Consulting Scientists
- British Broadcasting Corporation
- British Lighting Association for the Preparation of Standards (Britlaps)
- British Retail Consortium
- British Telecommunications plc
- Chartered Institution of Building Services Engineers
- Consumer Policy Committee of BSI
- Department of Trade and Industry (Consumer Safety Unit, CA Division)
- Electrical Installation Equipment Manufacturers' Association (BEAMA Ltd.)
- Electricity Association
- Institute of Trading Standards Administration
- Institution of Lighting Engineers
- Lighting Association
- Lighting Industry Federation Ltd.
- National Illumination Committee of Great Britain
- Small Electrical Appliances Marketing Association

This British Standard, having been prepared under the direction of the Electrotechnical Sector Board, was published under the authority of the Standards Board and comes into effect on 15 January 1997

National foreword

This Part of BS EN 60598 has been prepared by Subcommittee CPL/34/4 and is the English language version of EN 60598-2-23 Luminaires — Part 2-23: Particular requirements — Extra low voltage lighting systems for filament lamps, including amendment A1:2000, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). It is identical with IEC 60598-2-23:1996, including amendment 1:2000 published by the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC).

The start and finish of text introduced or altered by amendment is indicated in the text by tags A1 A1. Tags indicating changes to IEC text carry the number of the IEC amendment. For example, text altered by IEC amendment 1 is indicated by A1 A1.

This British Standard is to be read in conjunction with BS EN 60598-1:1993 Luminaires — Part 1: General requirements and tests which it supplements or modifies. The many references to Part 1 should be read as references to BS EN 60598-1 which is the English language version of EN 60598-1 which was derived from IEC 60598-1:1992 (third edition).

The British Standards which implement international or European publications referred to in this document may be found in the BSI Standards Catalogue under the section entitled “International Standards Correspondence Index”, or by using the “Find” facility of the BSI Standards Electronic Catalogue.

Product certification. Users of this British Standard are advised to consider the desirability of third party certification of product conformity with this British Standard based on testing and continuing surveillance, which may be coupled with assessment of a supplier’s quality systems against the appropriate Part of BS EN ISO 9000.

Enquiries as to the availability of third party certification schemes will be forwarded by BSI to the Association of Certification Bodies. If a third party certification scheme does not already exist, users should consider approaching an appropriate body from the list of Association members.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.

This European Standard was approved by CENELEC on 1996-07-02. Amendment A1 was approved by CENELEC on 2000-08-01. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.
