Committees responsible for this British Standard

The preparation of this British Standard was entrusted to Technical Committee GEL/3, Documentation and graphical symbols, upon which the following bodies were represented:

- British Photographic Association
- Consumer Policy Committee of BSI
- Federation of the Electronics Industry
- GAMBICA (BEAMA Ltd.)
- Transmission and Distribution Association (BEAMA Ltd.)

This British Standard, having been prepared under the direction of the Electrotechnical Sector Board, was published under the authority of the Standards Board and comes into effect on 15 February 1996

National foreword

This British Standard has been prepared by Technical Committee GEL/3 and is the English language version of EN 61286:1995 Information technology. Coded graphic character set for use in the preparation of documents used in electrotechnology and for information interchange, published by the European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CENELEC). It is identical with IEC 1286:1995 published by the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC).

This European Standard was approved by CENELEC on 1994-07-05. CENELEC members are bound to comply with the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations which stipulate the conditions for giving this European Standard the status of a national standard without any alteration.

Up-to-date lists and bibliographical references concerning such national standards may be obtained on application to the Central Secretariat or to any CENELEC member.

This European Standard exists in three official versions (English, French, German). A version in any other language made by translation under the responsibility of a CENELEC member into its own language and notified to the Central Secretariat has the same status as the official versions.

CENELEC members are the national electrotechnical committees of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.
