

Animal and vegetable fats and oils — Determination of acid value and acidity

The European Standard EN ISO 660:1999, with the incorporation of amendment A1:2005, has the status of a British Standard

IMPORTANT NOTE. This standard should be read in conjunction with BS 684-0.1 and BS EN ISO 661 (BS 684-0.2).

ICS 67.200.10

National foreword

This British Standard is the English language version of EN ISO 660:1999, including amendment A1:2005. It is identical with ISO 660:1996, including amendment 1:2003.

The start and finish of text introduced or altered by ISO amendment is indicated in the text as tags A1 A1. Tags indicating changes to text carry the number of the amendment. For example, text altered by ISO amendment 1 is indicated by A1 A1.

The UK participation in its preparation was entrusted to Technical Committee AW/11, Animal and vegetable fats and oils, which has the responsibility to:

- aid enquirers to understand the text;
- present to the responsible international/European committee any enquiries on the interpretation, or proposals for change, and keep UK interests informed;
- monitor related international and European developments and promulgate them in the UK.

A list of organizations represented on this committee can be obtained on request to its secretary.

Cross-references

Attention is drawn to the fact that CEN and CENELEC Standards normally include an annex which lists normative references to international publications with their corresponding European publications. The British Standards which implement international or European publications referred to in this document may be found in the BSI Catalogue under the section entitled “International Standards Correspondence Index”, or by using the “Search” facility of the BSI Electronic Catalogue or of British Standards Online.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
