National foreword

This British Standard reproduces verbatim ISO/IEC 9983:1989 and implements it as the UK national standard.

ISO/IEC 9983:1989 was accepted as a European Standard by the European Committee for Standardization (CEN) in March 1991. This European Standard is designated EN 29983:1991 and is entitled “Information processing systems — Designation of unrecorded flexible disk cartridges”.

This British Standard is published under the direction of the Information Systems Technology Standards Policy Committee whose Technical Committee IST/4 has the responsibility to:

- aid enquirers to understand the text;
- present to the responsible international committee any enquiries on interpretation, or proposals for change, and keep UK interests informed;
- monitor related international and European developments and promulgate them in the UK.

NOTE International and European Standards, as well as overseas standards, are available from BSI Sales Department, BSI, Linford Wood, Milton Keynes, MK14 6LE.

A British Standard does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users of British Standards are responsible for their correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
