TO THE ASSEMBLY
OF THE
INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ORGANIZATION

I have the honour to transmit, at the direction of the Council, its Report for the year 1985 prepared in compliance with Article 54(a) of the Convention on International Civil Aviation. With the Reports for 1983 (Doc 9421) and 1984 (Doc 9451) it constitutes documentation for Item 7 of the Provisional Agenda of the 26th Session of the Assembly. It will be supplemented by a brief review of the work of the Organization for the first six months of 1986 and will be sent to the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations in pursuance of Article VI, paragraph 2 (a) of the Agreement between the United Nations and ICAO.

The Report was prepared by the Secretariat and circulated in draft form to the Representatives of Council Member States for their suggestions. The Council, as a body, did not formally examine or adopt it but, as in the past, delegated to its President authority to approve the final text after considering all the suggestions received.

As in previous years, Chapter I is a description of significant developments in civil aviation during the year; the activities of ICAO itself are described in Chapters II to VIII.

The Council held four sessions in 1985. These were the One hundred and fourteenth Session from 21 January to 29 March with a total of nineteen meetings, two of which were held outside the Council phase; an Extraordinary Session on 22 and 23 April which consisted of two meetings; the One hundred and fifteenth session from 29 April to 10 July, with a total of nineteen meetings; and the One hundred and sixteenth Session from 4 September to 20 December, with a total of thirty-one meetings, eleven of which were held outside the Council phase. Authority was delegated to the President to act on a number of matters, as necessary, when the Council was not in session.

President of the Council
