FOREWORD

This publication contains amendments to the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution of the Sea by Oil, 1954, concerning the protection of the Great Barrier Reef (resolution A.232(VII)), and the tank arrangements and limitation of tank size (resolution A.246(VII)), adopted by the seventh session of the IMCO Assembly on 12 October and 15 October 1971 respectively.

In accordance with Article XVI(4) of the Convention, the amendments will come into force twelve months after the date on which they are accepted by two thirds of the Contracting Governments. As at 1 April 1981 these conditions had not been met.

The original text of the Convention, which was done by the International Conference on Pollution of the Sea by Oil in London on 12 May 1954, entered into force on 26 July 1958. The Convention was modified by amendments adopted by the International Conference on Prevention of Pollution of the Sea by Oil, 1962; these amendments entered into force on 18 May and 28 June 1967. The Convention was further modified by amendments adopted by the sixth session of the IMCO Assembly on 21 October 1969 (resolution A.175(VI)); these amendments entered into force on 20 January 1978.
