FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO Member Bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO Technical Committees. Every Member Body interested in a subject for which a Technical Committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that Committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the Technical Committees are circulated to the Member Bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 2457 was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 99, Semi-manufactures of timber. This second edition was circulated to the Member Bodies in May 1974.

It has been approved by the Member Bodies of the following countries :

Bulgaria	Netherlands	Spain
Germany	Norway	Thailand
Hungary	Poland	Turkey
Ireland	Romania	Yugoslavia
Italy	South Africa, Rep. of

The Member Bodies of the following countries expressed disapproval of the document on technical grounds :

Czechoslovakia
France
U.S.S.R.

This second edition cancels and replaces the first edition (i.e. ISO 2457-1972).
