FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO Member Bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO Technical Committees. Every Member Body interested in a subject for which a Technical Committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that Committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the Technical Committees are circulated to the Member Bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 3232 was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 35, Paints and varnishes, and circulated to the Member Bodies in April 1973.

It has been approved by the Member Bodies of the following countries :

Australia	Iran	Romania
Bulgaria	Ireland	South Africa, Rep. of
Czechoslovakia	Israel	Sweden
Egypt, Arab Rep. of	Netherlands	Switzerland
Germany	New Zealand	Thailand
Greece	Poland	Turkey
India	Portugal	United Kingdom

The Member Body of the following country expressed disapproval of the document on technical grounds :

France
