FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO member bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO technical committees. Every member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 4418 was developed by Technical Committee ISO/TC 133, Sizing systems and designations for clothes, and was circulated to the member bodies in September 1977.

It has been approved by the member bodies of the following countries :

Australia	Ireland	South Africa, Rep. of
Canada	Israel	Spain
Finland	Japan	Sweden
France	Netherlands	Turkey
Hungary	New Zealand	U.S.A.
India	Poland	U.S.S.R.
Iran	Romania	Yugoslavia

The member bodies of the following countries expressed disapproval of the document on technical grounds :

Germany
Switzerland
United Kingdom
