FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO member bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO technical committees. Every member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 4801 was developed by Technical Committee ISO/TC 48, Laboratory glassware and related apparatus, and was circulated to the member bodies in November 1977.

It has been approved by the member bodies of the following countries :

Australia	India	South Africa, Rep. of
Brazil	Israel	Spain
Czechoslovakia	Italy	Turkey
Egypt, Arab Rep. of	Mexico	United Kingdom
France	Netherlands	USSR
Germany, F.R.	Poland	Yugoslavia
Hungary	Romania

The member body of the following country expressed disapproval of the document on technical grounds :
