BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 1107, Netting for fishing – Basic terms and definitions, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 38, Textiles, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

Work on this question led to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

This first Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 1198) was circulated in January 1967 to all ISO Member Bodies for enquiry, and received sufficient support to be submitted to the ISO Council. However, during the preparation of the Council text, a technical problem arose, which necessitated the circulation of a second Draft ISO Recommendation.

In October 1968, this second Draft ISO Recommendation No. 1198 was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies :

Australia	India	South Africa, Rep. of
Belgium	Iran	Spain
Brazil	Israel	Sweden
Czechoslovakia	Japan	Switzerland
Denmark	New Zealand	Turkey
France	Norway	U.A.R.
Germany	Poland	United Kingdom
Greece	Portugal	U.S.S.R.
Hungary	Romania

One Member Body (Netherlands) opposed the approval of the second Draft, on account of the definitions contained in clause 2.7.1.

This second Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in September 1969, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
