BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 1182, Non-combustibility test for building materials, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 92, Fire tests on building materials and structures, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

Work on this question led to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In October 1968, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 1715) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies :

Australia	Israel	Spain
Austria	Korea, Rep. of	Sweden
Belgium	Netherlands	Thailand
Brazil	New Zealand	U.A.R.
Denmark	Poland	United Kingdom
Greece	Portugal	U.S.A.
Hungary	Romania	U.S.S.R.
India	South Africa, Rep. of

Four Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft :

France
Germany
Italy
Norway

This Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in January 1970, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
