BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 1185, Electrical connections between prime movers and towed vehicles with 24 V electrical equipment for commercial international traffic, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 22, Automobiles, the Secretariat of which is held by the Association Française de Normalisation (AFNOR).

Work on this question led to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In October 1968, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 1723) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies :

Austria	Italy	Switzerland
Belgium	Netherlands	Thailand
Chile	New Zealand	U.A.R.
France	Portugal	United Kingdom
Greece	Romania	U.S.A.
Hungary	Spain	U.S.S.R.
Israel	Sweden

Two Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft :

Germany
Japan

This Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in March 1970, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
