BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 224, Standard Form of Declaration of Performance of Aircraft Electrical Equipment, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 20, Aircraft, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (B.S.I.).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1957 and led, in the same year, to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In January 1959, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 274) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved by the following Member Bodies:

Belgium	Germany	Portugal
Burma	Israel	Spain
Canada	Italy	Sweden
Czechoslovakia	Japan	Switzerland
Finland	Pakistan	Turkey
France	Poland	United Kingdom

Two Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft:

Hungary, New Zealand.

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in December 1961, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
