BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 270, Determination of Fibre Length by Measuring the Length of Individual Fibres, was drawn up by technical Committee ISO/TC 38, Textiles, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (B.S.I.).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1948 and led, in 1956, to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In October 1957, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 182 - Part 1) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies:

Austria	Greece	Portugal
Belgium	Israel	Republic of South Africa
Burma	Italy	Romania
Canada	Japan	Spain
Czechoslovakia	Netherlands	Sweden
Denmark	New Zealand	Switzerland
France	Norway	Turkey
Germany	Poland	United Kingdom
		U.S.S.R.

Three Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft:

Hungary	India	U.S.A.
---------	-------	--------

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in August 1962, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
