BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 46, Aircraft fuel nozzle grounding plugs and sockets, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 20, Aircraft and space vehicles, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

Work on this question led to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In July 1954, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 46) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved by 23 Member Bodies; no Member Body opposed the approval of the Draft.

At its meeting in July 1957, the ISO Council decided to accept the Draft ISO Recommendation as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.

BRIEF HISTORY RELATING TO THE 2nd EDITION

In 1966, Technical Committee ISO/TC 20 approved the proposal by the German Member Body to delete from ISO Recommendation R 46-1957 the reference to the electrical resistance of the grounding cable. A Draft revision of ISO Recommendation R 46 was adopted and circulated in April 1968 to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry as Draft ISO Recommendation No. 1487. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies :

Australia	Italy	Turkey
Belgium	Netherlands	U.A.R.
Canada	New Zealand	United Kingdom
Czechoslovakia	Portugal	U.S.S.R.
France	Spain	Yugoslavia
Germany	Switzerland
Israel	Thailand

No Member Body opposed the approval of the Draft.

This Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in January 1970, to accept it as a revision of ISO Recommendation R 46-1957.

This edition (2nd edition) cancels and replaces the first edition of ISO Recommendation R 46-1957.
