BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 491, Cutting and Perforating Dimensions for 35 mm Motion-Picture Raw Stock Film was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 36, Cinematography, the Secretariat of which is held by the American Standards Association, Inc. (ASA).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1948 and led to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 71) which was circulated to all ISO Member Bodies in 1955.

In that same year, the Technical Committee decided to withdraw this Draft and to prepare a more comprehensive document. This work led to the adoption of a second Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 636) in 1961, which was circulated to all ISO Member Bodies in November 1963 and approved by the following Member Bodies:

Belgium	Germany	Romania
Brazil	Greece	Spain
Bulgaria	Hungary	Sweden
Canada	Italy	Switzerland
Chile	Japan	United Kingdom
Colombia	Korea, Rep. of	U.S.A.
Czechoslovakia	Netherlands
Denmark	New Zealand

Two Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft: France, U.S.S.R.

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council which decided, in July 1966, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
