BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 501, Determination of the Crucible Swelling Number of Coal, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 27, Solid Mineral Fuels, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1951 and led, in 1960, to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In October 1962, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 551) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies:

Australia	Italy	Spain
Austria	Japan	Sweden
Belgium	Netherlands	Switzerland
Brazil	New Zealand	Turkey
Chile	Poland	United Kingdom
Czechoslovakia	Portugal	U.S.A.
Denmark	Republic of	U.S.S.R.
Germany	South Africa	Yugoslavia
India	Romania

One Member Body opposed the approval of the Draft:

France

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council which decided, in September 1966, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
