BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 566, Common Names for Pesticides—Sixth List, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 81, Common Names for Pesticides, the Secretariat of which is held by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1961 and led, in 1962, to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In June 1963, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 579) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies:

Australia	France	Portugal
Austria	Greece	Spain
Belgium	Hungary	Sweden
Canada	India	Switzerland
Chile	Italy	Turkey
Czechoslovakia	Netherlands	United Kingdom
Denmark	New Zealand	U.S.S.R.

Three Member Bodies opposed the approval of the Draft:

Germany
Republic of South Africa
U.S.A.

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council, which decided, in April 1967, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
