BRIEF HISTORY

The ISO Recommendation R 710/I, Graphical symbols for use on detailed maps, plans and geological cross sections – Part I : General rules of representation, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 82, Mining, the Secretariat of which is held by the Deutscher Normenausschuss (DNA).

Work on this question by the Technical Committee began in 1959 and led, in 1963, to the adoption of a Draft ISO Recommendation.

In January 1965, this Draft ISO Recommendation (No. 730) was circulated to all the ISO Member Bodies for enquiry. It was approved, subject to a few modifications of an editorial nature, by the following Member Bodies :

Belgium	India	Spain
Brazil	Italy	South Africa,
Chile	Japan	Rep. of
Czechoslovakia	Korea, Rep. of	Sweden
France	Netherlands	Turkey
Germany	New Zealand	U.A.R.
Greece	Poland	U.S.S.R.
Hungary	Portugal

One Member Body opposed the approval of the Draft :

Yugoslavia

The Draft ISO Recommendation was then submitted by correspondence to the ISO Council which decided, in April 1968, to accept it as an ISO RECOMMENDATION.
