Foreword

The development of this Publicly Available Specification (PAS) has been facilitated by BSI Standards Limited and is published under licence from The British Standards Institution. It came into effect on 19th March 2012.

The development of this PAS was sponsored by the Department for Energy and Climate Change (DECC) and undertaken by a group of experts representing:

Association of British Certification Bodies
British Board of Agrément
Competent Persons Forum
Federation of Certification Bodies
Independent International Organization for Certification
United Kingdom Accreditation Service

Comments from other parties were also sought by BSI, particularly through the Expert Review and Public Comment process, which took place during December 2011. The expert contributions from all the organizations and individuals contributing to the development of this PAS are gratefully acknowledged.

Publishing information

The British Standards Institution retains ownership and copyright of this PAS. BSI Standards Limited as the publisher of the PAS reserves the right to withdraw or amend this PAS on receipt of authoritative advice that it is appropriate to do so. This PAS will be reviewed at intervals not exceeding two years, and any amendments arising from the review will be published as an amended PAS and publicized in Update Standards.

Relationship with other publications

This PAS has been drafted exclusively for use in association with BSI PAS 2030:2012 Improving the energy efficiency of existing buildings – Specification for installation process, process management and service provision and is not intended for use in any other connection.

Use of this document

It has been assumed in the preparation of this PAS that the execution of its provisions will be entrusted to a competent person or persons for whose use it has been produced.

This PAS is not to be regarded as a British Standard, European Standard or International Standard. In the event that this PAS is put forward to form the basis of a full British Standard, European Standard or International Standard, it will be withdrawn.

Presentational conventions

The provisions of this standard are presented in roman (i.e. upright) type. Its requirements are expressed in sentences in which the principal auxiliary verb is "shall".

Commentary, explanation and general informative material is presented in smaller italic type, and does not constitute a normative element.

Contractual and legal considerations

This publication does not purport to include all the necessary provisions of a contract. Users are responsible for its correct application.

Compliance with a British Standard cannot confer immunity from legal obligations.
