RATIONALE

This document has been determined to contain basic and stable technology which is not dynamic in nature.

Design authorities may determine that this document is no longer to be used for new design. This determination should be made by each design authority.

STABILIZED NOTICE

This document has been declared "STABILIZED" by SAE S-9B Cabin Interiors and Furnishings Committee and will no longer be subjected to periodic reviews for currency. Users are responsible for verifying references and continued suitability of technical requirements. Newer technology may exist.

SAE Executive Standards Committee Rules provide that: "This report is published by SAE to advance the state of technical and engineering sciences. The use of this report is entirely voluntary, and its applicability and suitability for any particular use, including any patent infringement arising therefrom, is the sole responsibility of the user."

SAE reviews each technical report at least every five years at which time it may be revised, reaffirmed, stabilized, or cancelled. SAE invites your written comments and suggestions.

1. SCOPE

1.1 Scope

This document provides guidance for in-flight rest facilities provided for use by cabin crew on commercial transport airplane.

This document is applicable to dedicated cabin crew rest facilities with rigid walls. The facility includes a bunk or other surface that allows for a flat sleeping position, is located in an area that is temperature-controlled, allows the crew member to control light, and provides isolation from noise and disturbance.
