RATIONALE

This document had been taken directly from U.S. Military Specification MIL-N-27444C (USAF), Notice 1, and adopted in 2000-11 as an SAE standard under the provisions of the SAE Technical Standards Board (TSB) Rules and Regulations (TSB 001) pertaining to accelerated adoption of government specifications and standards. Subsequent discussions with Air Force engineering resulted in the concern that MIL-N-27444C, become an SAE commercial specification was no longer under the control of the Air Force, the manager for cargo nets. As far as engineering could determine, there are no commercial applications for the cargo net specified by MIL-N-27444C. The net is currently being procured according to government drawings maintained by the Air Force. It was accordingly requested and agreed that AS27444 (MIL-N-27444C) should be cancelled as an SAE document.

CANCELLATION NOTICE

This document has been declared "CANCELLED" as of August 2007. By this action, this document will remain listed in the Numerical Section of the Aerospace Standards Index.

SAE Technical Standards Board Rules provide that: "This report is published by SAE to advance the state of technical and engineering sciences. The use of this report is entirely voluntary, and its applicability and suitability for any particular use, including any patent infringement arising therefrom, is the sole responsibility of the user."

SAE reviews each technical report at least every five years at which time it may be reaffirmed, revised, or cancelled. SAE invites your written comments and suggestions.

NOTICE

This document has been taken directly from U.S. Military Specification MIL-N-27444C (USAF), Notice 1 and contains only minor editorial and format changes required to bring it into conformance with the publishing requirements of SAE technical standards. The initial release of this document is intended to replace MIL-N-27444C (USAF), Notice 1. Any part numbers established by the original specification remain unchanged.

The original Military Specification was adopted as an SAE standard under the provisions of the SAE Technical Standards Board (TSB) Rules and Regulations (TSB 001) pertaining to accelerated adoption of government specifications and standards. TSB rules provide for (a) the publication of portions of unrevised government specifications and standards without consensus voting at the SAE Committee level, and (b) the use of the existing government specification or standard format.

Under Department of Defense policies and procedures, any qualification requirements and associated qualified products lists are mandatory for DOD contracts. Any requirement relating to qualified products lists (QPL's) has not been adopted by SAE and is not part of this SAE technical document.

SAE Technical Standards Board Rules provide that: "This report is published by SAE to advance the state of technical and engineering sciences. The use of this report is entirely voluntary, and its applicability and suitability for any particular use, including any patent infringement arising therefrom, is the sole responsibility of the user."

SAE reviews each technical report at least every five years at which time it may be reaffirmed, revised, or cancelled. SAE invites your written comments and suggestions.
